CAT CITY OPENS THE DOORS OF “PURRRRFECT” NEW HOME

The cats have unpacked and forwarded their mail, now they’d like nothing better than have you stop by and check out their new “pad”!

On Thursday, January 13, PAWS Cat City is opening its new digs at 5200 Roosevelt Way N.E., SUITE B, in the University District.

Our new location is a “colony” cat adoption center. Instead of cages, cats and kittens live in open rooms, where they’re free to lounge or roam to their hearts content! Not only is this the best way for cats to live, it also gives potential adopters the opportunity to play with our feline friends and get a sense of each animals personality before adopting.

For more than 13 years, Cat City made its home in the Greenwood neighborhood of Seattle. While we’re sad to leave, the new University District location offers lots of parking, a bigger space, and easy access to I-5 and 520.

Management and Representatives will be on hand from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. for video, photographs and interviews. Live shots and remotes are also available with line of sight to Capitol Hill towers.

For any questions, or for preview access, please contact Mark Coleman, Community Relations Manager, at 206.419.6646.

PAWS is a champion for animals—rehabilitating injured and orphaned wildlife, sheltering and adopting homeless cats and dogs, and educating people to make a better world for animals and people.
