

Getting Approval for a Youth Service Project

Thank you for your interest in helping animals and/or PAWS. If you would like to receive formal credit from PAWS for your project, please complete the attached Youth Service Projects form and submit it for approval to the Education Programs Manager prior to beginning your project. If your service project is approved, PAWS will send you an official letter of acceptance to the address you provided on the Youth Service Projects form. Note: You must have prior approval to receive credit.

Once you receive your letter of acceptance from PAWS, follow these steps to receive credit:

- 1) Complete your project and keep a log of your service hours, including a description of the work completed. See the attached example log sheet for more information.
- 2) With your parents' or guardian's approval, have someone take a photo of you working on your project. Have your parent or guardian sign the photo waiver. (A photo waiver will be sent to you after your service project is approved.)
- 3) Write a short reflection paper on your experience (1–3 pages).
- 4) Send copies of the following items to PAWS at the address below:
 - Project log
 - Reflection paper
 - Photo(s) and signed photo waiver
 - Forms from your school or group that require PAWS signatures

Once we receive your project log, reflection paper, photos, photo waiver, and school forms, we will send you an official letter of credit from PAWS.
