

Further Exploration

Additional Activities & Projects For Upper Elementary (K-2)

Fill in the boxes with the emotion that you think the cat's body language is showing. Put a check next to the cats that you could approach and pet.

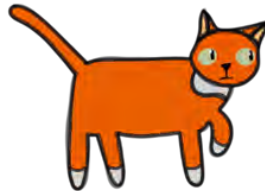

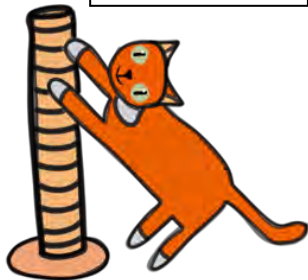

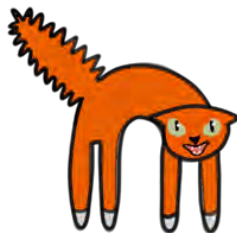

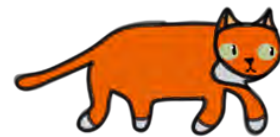

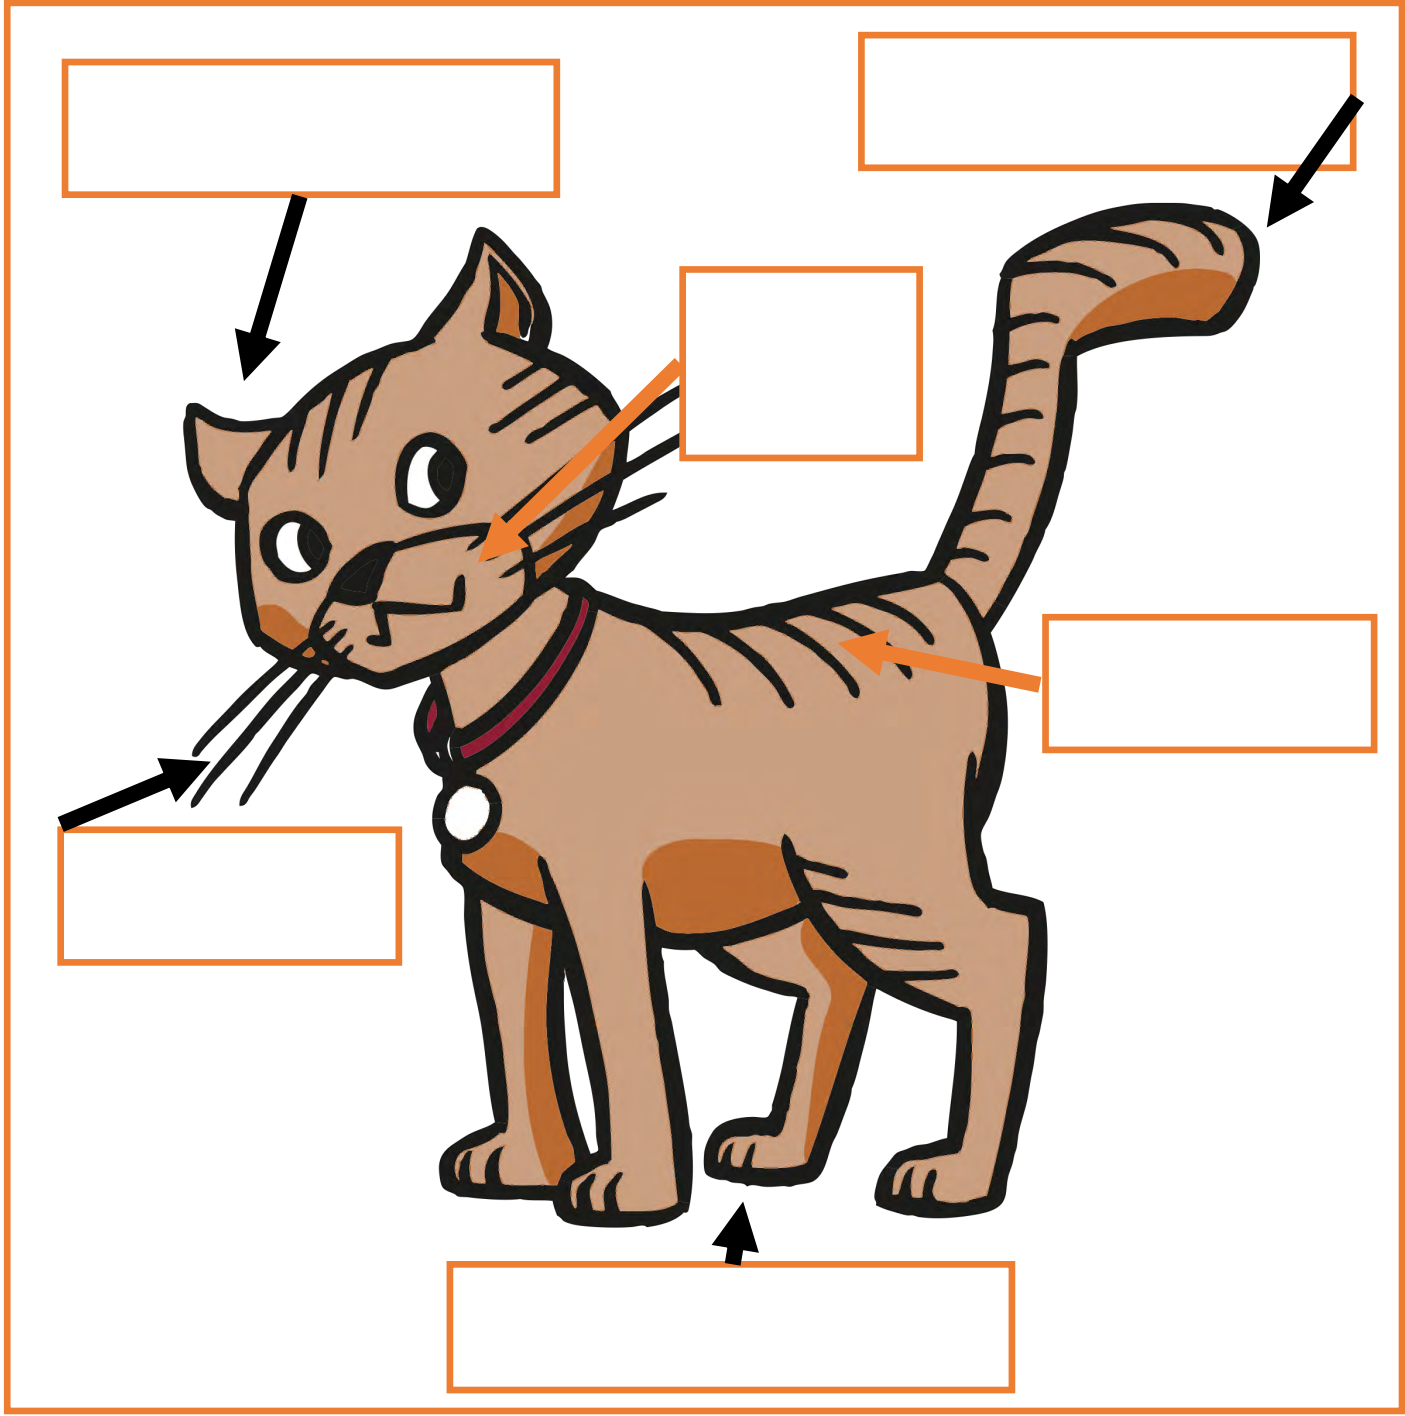

Science

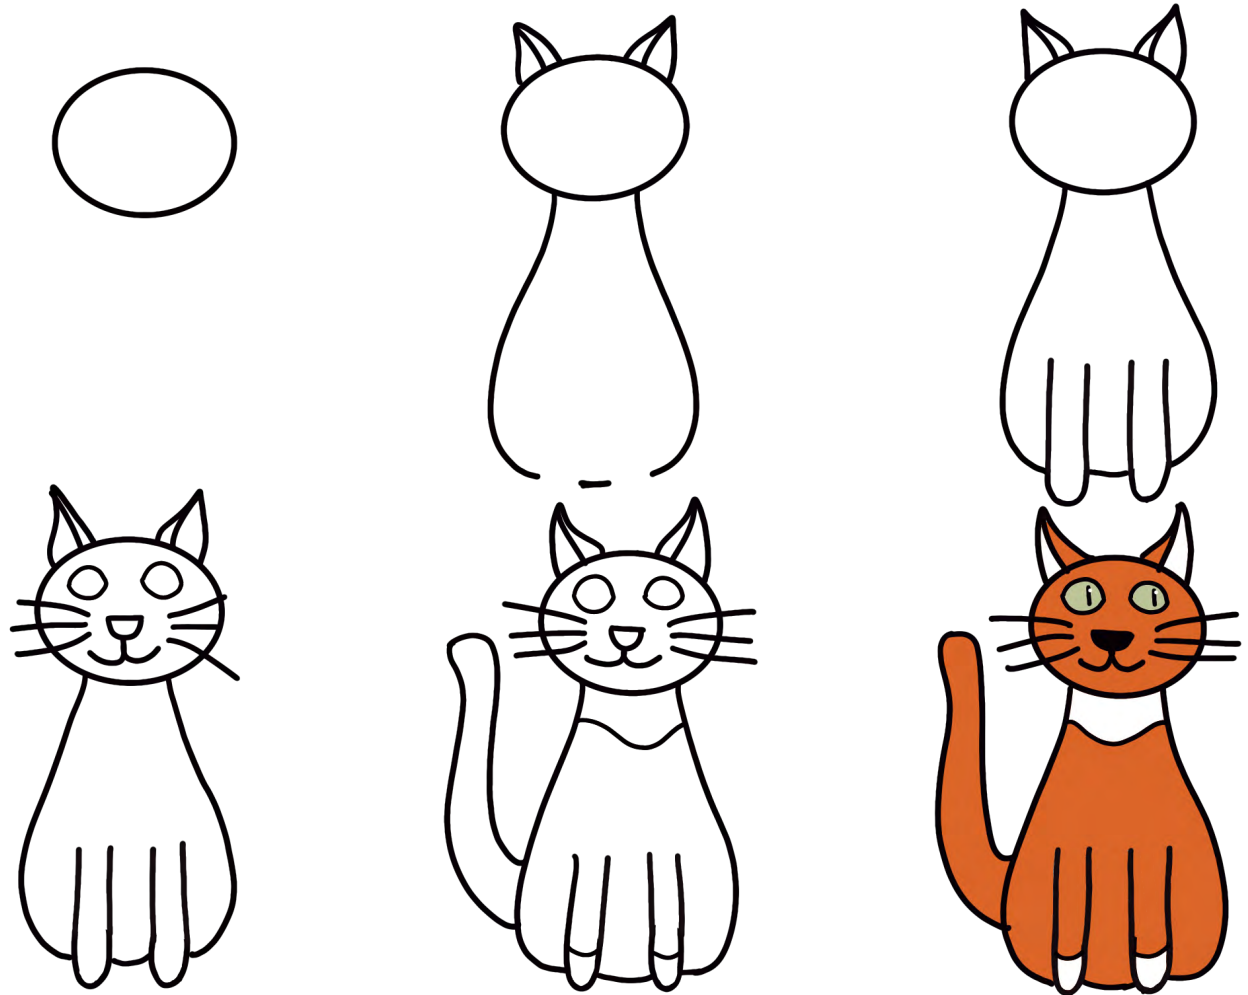

Label the parts of the cat.

PAWS EARS TAIL BACK WHISKERS MOUTH

Writing

Learn how to draw a cat. Follow these six steps below.

Further Exploration Additional Activities & Projects For Lower Elementary (K-2)

Math

Count how many cats are in each picture.

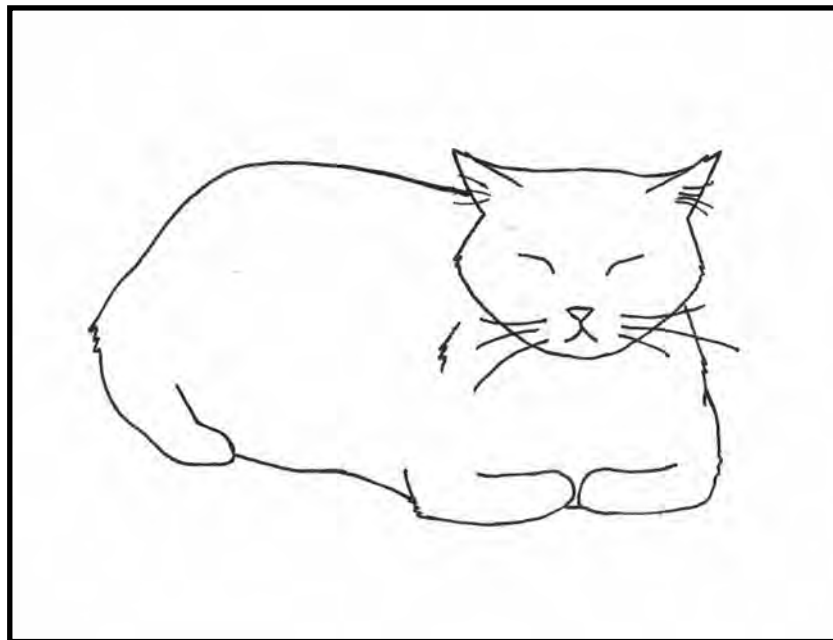

Two empty rectangular boxes are provided for the student to write the number of cats in each picture. An orange arrow points from the top box to the top image, and another orange arrow points from the bottom box to the bottom image.

Writing

Match the steps of how to safely pet a cat to the numbers of the order.

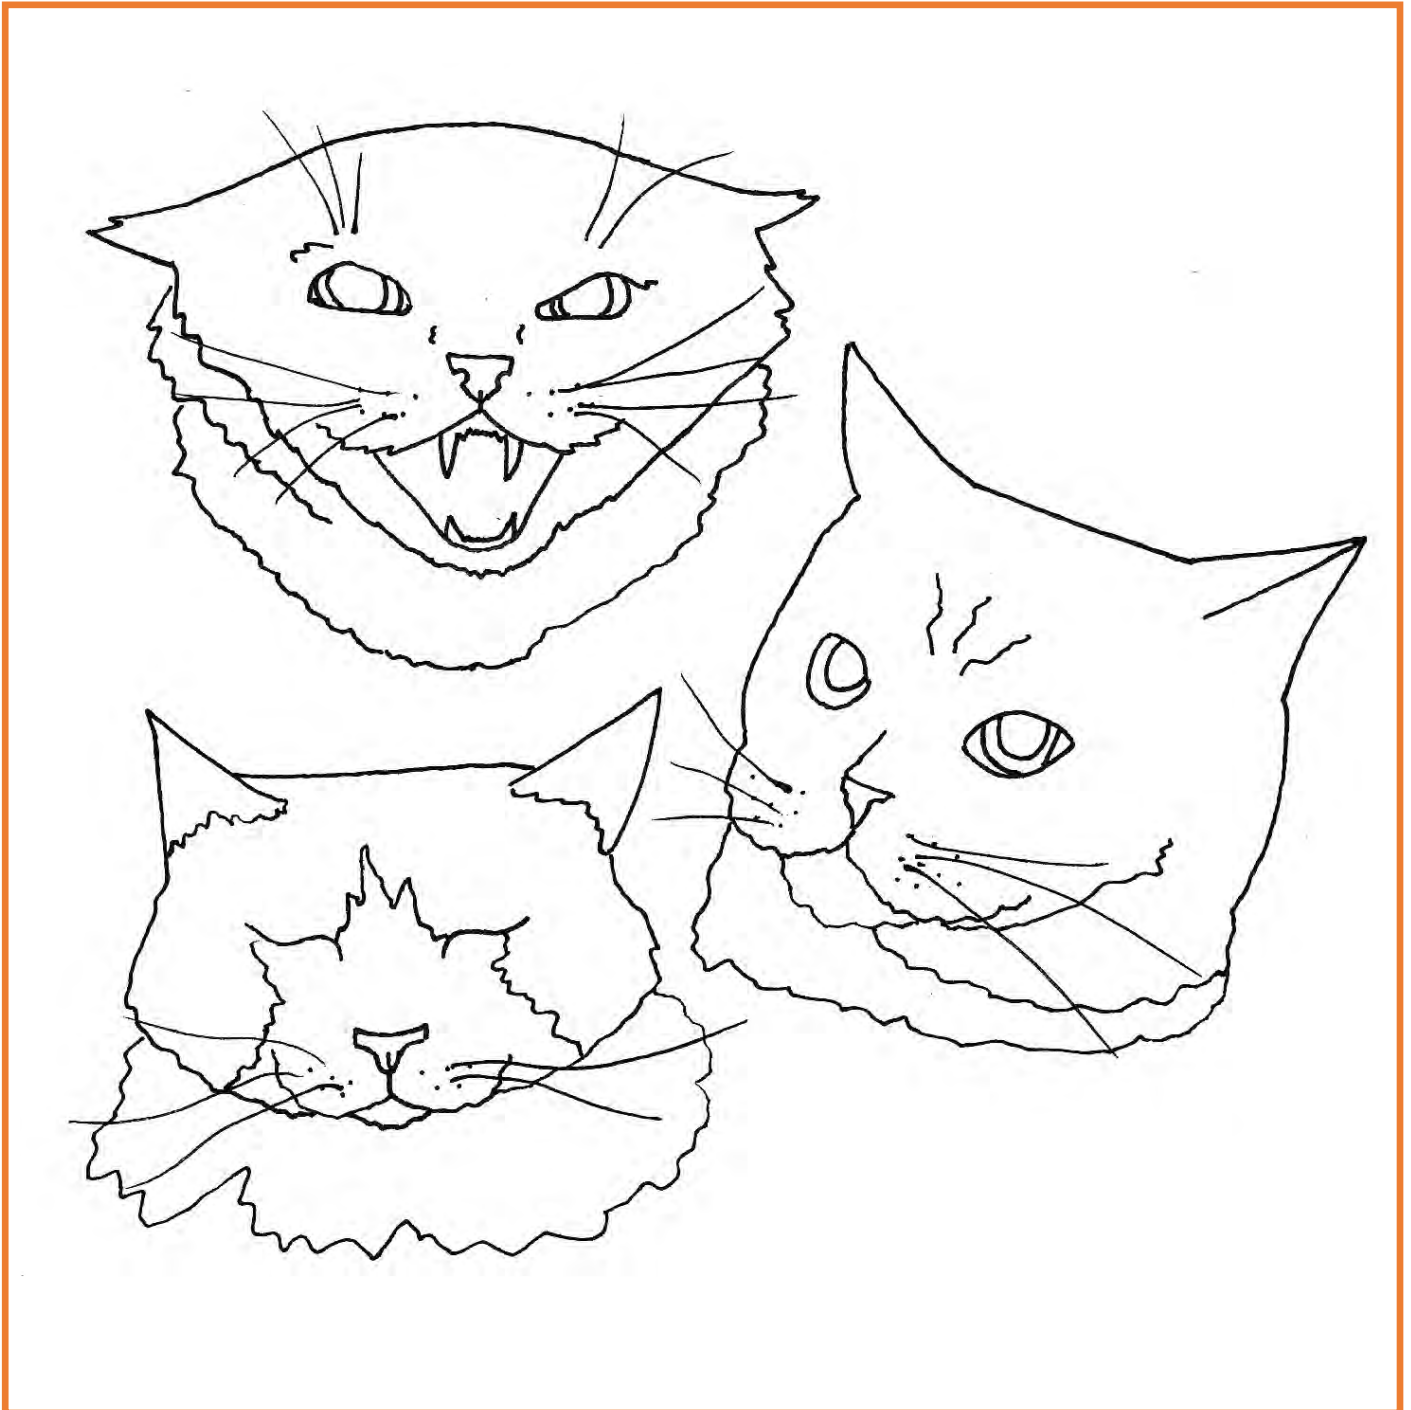

| | | | | |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|---|---|---|
| The cat is showing positive emotion. | Let the cat approach you. | Pet the cat in a safe spot like the head. | Pay attention to the cat's body language. | Sit down on the floor while staying quiet and calm. |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|---|---|---|

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
|---|---|---|---|---|

Writing

Color the different facial expressions of a cat.

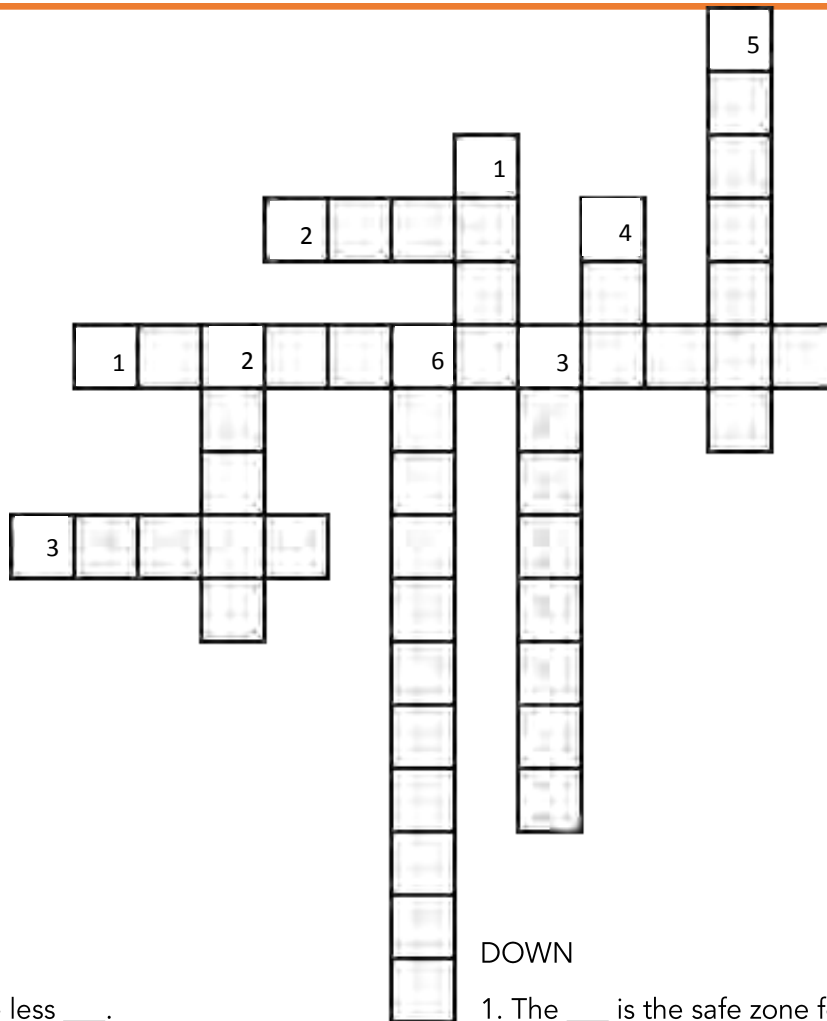

Further Exploration Additional Activities & Projects For Upper Elementary (K-2)

Complete the Crossword

Test your knowledge of how to safely pet a cat.

ACROSS

1. Stay calm to be less ____.
2. Show respect by making the cat feel ____.
3. Stay ____ to be less scary to the cat.

DOWN

1. The ____ is the safe zone for most cats.
2. Most cats like being pet in ____ spots.
3. Let the cat ____ you.
4. ____ to bring yourself to the same level as the cat.
5. Body language tells us how a cat is ____.
6. Remember to always check a cat's body language when ____ with them.

1. Head 2. Three 3. Approach 4. Sit 5. Feeling 6. Interacting

1. Intimidating 2. Safe 3. Quiet

Down

Across

Further Exploration Additional Activities & Projects For Upper Elementary (K-2)

Interested

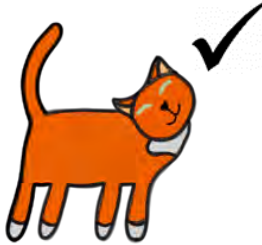

Friendly

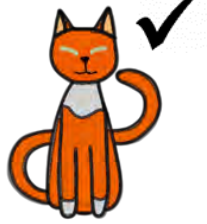

Attentive

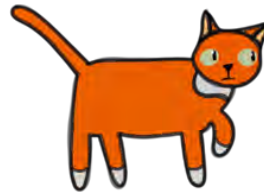

Relaxed

"I like you."

Friendly & Relaxed

Cautious

Trusting

"This feels good."

Worried

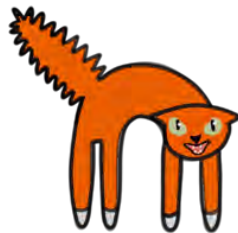

Anxious

Irritated

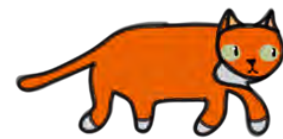

Terrified

Super Terrified

Playful

Hunting